A special note for former caregivers, alternate payees, and plan beneficiaries:

If you are a former caregiver, alternate payee, or beneficiary with an account balance in the plan, some of the information enclosed may not apply to you. However, you will be affected by the upcoming transition, so please read this material carefully.

ACTIVITY CALENDAR

Please review this activity calendar to understand how your account(s) may be affected during the transition period.

To ensure that all information is transferred accurately from your current plan account at Transamerica to your new plan account at Fidelity, there will be a period of time when you will be unable to take certain actions. These actions include directing or diversifying investments, obtaining a loan, or taking a distribution. This period during which you will be unable to make changes is called a blackout period.

Because you will be unable to direct or diversify the assets held in your plan account during the blackout period, it is very important that you review and consider the appropriateness of your current investments. For your long-term retirement security, you should give careful consideration to the importance of a well-balanced and diversified investment portfolio, taking into account all your assets, income, and investments.

If you have any questions concerning this blackout, please contact Fidelity Investments at 800-343-0860.

If you would like to make any changes to your account at Transamerica before the start of the blackout period, please go online at stjoe.trsrretire.com or call 888-976-8098 before March 29, 2018, at 1 p.m. Pacific time/ 3 p.m. Central time.

*The timing of the plan changes and transition period, including any asset reallocations, described within this brochure depends on a variety of factors, which may include the timing and accuracy of the transfer of data, receipt of instructions, and receipt of assets. Changes in any of these factors may result in changes to the timing of the delivery of services, the transition period, and/or the dates on which, and thus the prices at which, assets in your account are sold and/or reinvested.

Fidelity® Portfolio Advisory Service at Work³ *Beginning April 6, 2018	Fidelity® Portfolio Advisory Service at Work is an optional service that can take the time and stress out of managing your own investments. This feature gives you access to a team of professionals that will help you create a plan, and stay on track to retirement. ³ This service provides discretionary money management for a fee.
Rebalance Notification	Get notified via email any time your account's investment mix strays from your original strategy.
NetBenefits® Website NetBenefits.com	Access to Fidelity's comprehensive website dedicated to retirement planning. ³Fidelity® Portfolio Advisory Service at Work is a service of Strategic Advisers, Inc., a registered investment adviser and a Fidelity Investments company. This service provides discretionary money management for a fee.

During the transition, these account activities will continue:

Payroll Contributions	Your pretax contribution(s) deducted from your pay, including catch-up contributions, if applicable, will continue to be deducted from your paycheck. These contributions will transfer to Fidelity.
Outstanding Loans	If you have an outstanding loan in one or more of your retirement plan accounts, that loan will transfer to Fidelity. Loan repayments must continue to be paid monthly via ACH payment directly from your checking or savings account. If you are currently repaying your loan via coupon repayment or payroll deductions, instructions for how to set up your ACH repayments will be mailed to your home in late April. ⁴

⁴Loan repayments received during the blackout period will be invested in the Vanguard Federal Money Market Fund Investor Shares⁵ until the blackout period ends. At that time, loan repayments and any associated earnings will be posted to your account according to your investment elections on file with Fidelity. If you do not have any elections on file, your loan repayments and any associated earnings will be invested in the Vanguard Institutional Target Retirement Date Funds, Institutional Shares.

⁵You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. The Fund may impose a fee upon the sale of your shares or may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the fund's liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time.

Stable Value Fund

When the market closes (generally 1 p.m. Pacific time/ 3 p.m. Central time) on March 29, 2018, for SJHS Plans, and April 5, 2018, for CHS Plans, the TFLIC Guaranteed Pooled fund offered through the Plan will no longer be available for new contributions, loan repayments, or exchanges. As a result, future contributions and loan repayments will be directed to the new stable value investment option at Fidelity, unless you direct otherwise by making changes to your account before March 29, 2018.

Once the blackout period has ended, all Plan services will be available, including the ability to make investment exchanges within your account.

If You are Invested in the TFLIC Guaranteed Pooled Fund:	New Contributions and Balances will Transfer to:
	▶ Managed Income Portfolio II Class 3

You are not permitted to make a direct exchange between the Managed Income Portfolio II Class 3 and the Vanguard Federal Money Market Investor Shares, nor between the Managed Income Portfolio II Class 3 and Fidelity BrokerageLink®. Before exchanging between these funds, you must first exchange to a “noncompeting” fund for 90 days. While these requirements may seem restrictive, they are typically imposed by issuers such as insurance companies, banks, or other approved financial institutions, as a condition for issuing investment contracts to retirement plans.

Self-Directed Brokerage Transferring to Fidelity BrokerageLink®

When the market closes (generally 1 p.m. Pacific time, 3 p.m. Central time) on March 29, 2018, for SJHS Plans and April 5, 2018, for CHS Plans, the Personal Choice Retirement Accounts will no longer be available. Current account balances held in the Personal Choice Retirement Accounts (PCRA) will transfer to Fidelity Investments. While most mutual funds and stocks will be able to transfer in kind to the same investment option in Fidelity BrokerageLink®, there are a few options that will not be available at Fidelity. If you have a Personal Choice Retirement Account holding one of these investments, you will receive a separate communication regarding brokerage account transfers.

For an explanation of your rights to direct investments, any plan restrictions, and a description of the types of fees and expenses associated with your plan account(s), please refer to the enclosed Participant Disclosure Notice.

INVESTMENT OPTIONS

Before investing in any mutual fund, consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses. Contact Fidelity for a prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this information. Read it carefully.

Overview

The SJHS and CHS retirement plans give you a choice of investment options that allow you the flexibility to build your own strategy to meet your needs—both long- and short-term. As mentioned on page 8, with the exception of the TFLIC Guaranteed Pooled Fund, Providence St. Joseph Health expects to transition all other investments in kind, meaning your investment will not change. Please be aware that the transfer methodology may vary by individual investment option, and certain options may be out of the market for a day or more while others remain fully invested during the transition.

What you need to do

Now is a good time to look at your situation and decide whether changes might be appropriate to better align your investment approach with your retirement goals.

How to choose your investments

Before making your investment decisions, it is important that you become familiar with the various options in your retirement plan(s). Additional information regarding each investment option's risk, as well as its strategy and objective, can be obtained on NetBenefits at NetBenefits.com beginning April 6, 2018. Please consider all investment information before choosing your investments.

For an explanation of your rights to direct investments, any plan restrictions, and a description of the types of fees and expenses associated with your plan account, refer to the enclosed Participant Disclosure Notice.

To simplify your choices, your investment options are organized in the following tiers:

Tier 1:
Target Date Funds

Tier 2:
Core Investment Options

Tier 3:
Fidelity BrokerageLink®

Tier 1: Target Date Funds

Target date funds are mutual funds that automatically reset the asset mix of stocks, bonds, and cash equivalents in their portfolios based on an anticipated retirement date. Their returns are not guaranteed, but depend on how the market performs.

Through the plan's fund lineup, you have access to the Vanguard Institutional Target Retirement Date Funds Institutional Shares (Vanguard Target Retirement Funds). These are designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each fund's name. The funds are managed to gradually become more conservative over time as they approach the target date. The investment risk of each target date fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed-income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, and foreign securities. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Simply find your date of birth range in the following table to determine into which Vanguard Target Retirement Fund your balances could be directed.

The Vanguard Target Retirement Date Funds serve as the default fund in your retirement plan account(s). Your applicable current account balances and future contributions will be invested in the target date fund that has a target retirement date closest to the year you might retire (assumes a retirement age of 65 as determined by your plan sponsor).

Please use the guidelines in the table below to determine into which Vanguard Institutional Target Date Fund your current account balances and future contributions will be invested.

Tier 2: Core Investment Options

Tier 2 is made up of passively and actively managed funds.

Passively managed funds (also called index funds) are designed to mirror a market index or benchmark. These funds generally have lower fees than funds that are “actively managed”; that is, funds that try to outperform—or beat—market returns.

Ultimately, index funds are designed to provide exposure to a broad selection of securities at a relatively low cost. While these funds typically perform very similarly to the index they track, you should be aware that index funds cannot be expected to meet or beat the index’s performance.

Actively managed funds try to outperform comparable market indices or benchmarks. These funds are actively managed by a fund manager or team of managers who select the investments they think will deliver the best combination of risk and return. Actively managed funds often have higher fees than passively managed funds due to the level of involvement the fund manager has in maintaining the portfolio. These actively managed funds give you a great degree of flexibility, and the ability to rebalance and manage your portfolio over time.

The cost of actively managed funds may be higher than passive funds.

The St. Joseph and Covenant Health Systems 401(k) Plan is intended to be a participant directed plan as described in Section 404(c) of ERISA, which means that fiduciaries of the plan are ordinarily relieved of liability for any losses that are the direct and necessary result of investment instructions given by a participant or beneficiary.

Tier 3: Fidelity BrokerageLink®

A self-directed brokerage account combines the convenience of your retirement plan with the additional flexibility of an individual brokerage account. It gives you expanded investment choices and the opportunity to manage your retirement contributions.

BrokerageLink® includes investments beyond those in your lineup. Providence St. Joseph Health neither evaluates nor monitors the investments available through a self-directed brokerage account. It is your responsibility to ensure that the investments you select are suitable for your situation, including your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. Contact Fidelity at 800-343-0860 for a fact sheet and/or commission schedule for applicable fees and risks.

BrokerageLink® is the route for investors who wish to closely evaluate and monitor their investments. Fidelity can help caregivers determine if this option is a good fit for their personal situation. Please contact Fidelity at 800-343-0860 on or after April 6, 2018, if you wish to open an account.

*You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Fidelity Investments and its affiliates, the fund's sponsor, have no legal obligation to provide financial support to money market funds and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time.

Fidelity's government and U.S. Treasury money market funds will not impose a fee upon the sale of your shares, nor temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the fund's weekly liquid assets fall below 30% of its total assets because of market conditions or other factors.
